

FAIR HOUSING ACT

Sec. 800. [42 U.S.C. 3601 note] Short Title

This title may be cited as the "Fair Housing Act".

Sec. 801. [42 U.S.C. 3601] Declaration of Policy

It is the policy of the United States to provide, within constitutional limitations, for fair housing throughout the United States.

Sec. 802. [42 U.S.C. 3602] Definitions As used in this subchapter--

- (a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.
  - (b) "Dwelling" means any building, structure, or portion thereof which is occupied as, or designed or intended as, a residence by one or more families, and any vacant land which is offered for sale or lease for the construction thereon of any such building, structure, or portion thereof.
  - (c) "Family" includes a single individual.
  - (d) "Person" includes one or more individuals, corporations, partnerships, associations, labor organizations, labor union representatives, mutual companies, joint-stock companies, trusts, unincorporated organizations, trustees, trustees under title 11 [of the United States Code], receivers, and fiduciaries.
  - (e) "To rent" includes to lease, to sublease, to let and otherwise to grant for a consideration the right to occupy or use premises owned by the occupant.
  - (f) "Discriminatory housing practice" means an act that is unlawful under section 804, 805, 806, or 818 of this title.
  - (g) "State" means any of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States.
  - (h) "Handicap" means, with respect to a person--
    - (1) a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities;
    - (2) a record of having such an impairment, or
    - (3) being regarded as having such an impairment, but such term does not include current, illegal use of or addiction to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)).
  - (i) "Aggrieved person" includes any person who--
    - (1) claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice; or
    - (2) believes that such person will be injured by a discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur.
  - (j) "Complainant" means the person (including the Secretary) who files a complaint under section 810.
  - (k) "Familial status" means one or more individuals (who have not attained the age of 18 years) being domiciled with--
    - (1) a parent or another person having legal custody of such individual or individuals; or
    - (2) the designee of such parent or other person having such custody, with the written permission of such other person.
- The protections afforded against discrimination on the basis of familial status shall apply to any person who is in the process of securing legal custody of any individual who has not attained the age of 18 years.
- (l) "Conciliation" means the attempted resolution of issues raised by a complaint, or by the investigation of such issues, through informal negotiations involving the aggrieved person, the respondent, and the Secretary.
  - (m) "Conciliation agreement" means a written agreement setting forth the resolution of the issues in conciliation.
  - (n) "Respondent" means--
    - (1) the person or other entity accused in a complaint of an unfair housing practice; and
    - (2) any other person or entity identified in the course of investigation and notified as required with respect to respondents so identified under section 810(a).
  - (o) "Prevailing party" has the same meaning as such term has in section 722 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (42 U.S.C. 1988).

[42 U.S.C. 3602 note] Neither the term "individual with handicaps" nor the term "handicap" shall apply to an individual because that individual is a transvestite.

Sec. 803. [42 U.S.C. 3603] Effective dates of certain prohibitions

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section and section 807 of this title, the prohibitions against discrimination in the sale or rental of housing set forth in section 804 of this title shall apply:

(1) Upon enactment of this subchapter, to--

(A) dwellings owned or operated by the Federal Government;

(B) dwellings provided in whole or in part with the aid of loans, advances, grants, or contributions of the Federal Government, under agreements entered into after November 20, 1962, unless payment has been made in full prior to April 11, 1968;

(C) dwellings provided in whole or in part by loans insured, guaranteed, or otherwise secured by the Federal Government, under agreements entered into after November 20, 1962, unless payment has been made in full prior to April 11, 1968: Provided, That nothing contained in subparagraph (C) of this subsection shall be applicable to dwellings solely by virtue of the fact that they are subleased by an FDIC or FSLIC institution; and

(D) dwellings provided by the development or the redevelopment of real property purchased, otherwise obtained from a State or local public agency receiving Federal financial assistance through a clearance or urban renewal with respect to such real property under loan or grant contracts entered into after November 20, 1962.

(2) After December 31, 1968, to all dwellings covered by paragraph (1) and to all other dwellings except those covered by subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Nothing in section 804 of this title (other than subsection (c)) shall apply to--

(1) any single-family house sold or rented by an owner: Provided, That such private individual owner does not own more than three such single-family houses at any one time: Provided further, That in the case of the sale or rental of such single-family house by a private individual owner not residing in such house at the time of such sale or rental, the exemption granted by this subsection shall apply only with respect to one such sale within any twenty-four month period: Provided further, That such private individual owner does not own any interest in, nor is there owned or reserved on his behalf, under any express or voluntary agreement, title to or any right to all or a portion of the proceeds from the sale or rental of more than three such single-family houses at any one time: Provided further, That after December 31, 1968, the sale or rental of any such single-family house shall be excepted from the application of this subchapter only if such house was not sold or rented (A) without the use in any manner of the sales or rental facilities or the sales or rental services of any real estate broker, agent, or salesman, or of such facilities or services of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee or agent of any such broker, agent, salesman, or person and (B) without the publication, posting or mailing, after notice, of any advertisement or written notice in violation of section 804 of this title; but nothing in this proviso shall prohibit the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstractors, title companies, or other such professional assistance as necessary to perfect or transfer the title, or

(2) rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than two families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his residence.

(c) For the purposes of subsection (b) of this section, a person shall be deemed to be in the business of selling or renting dwellings if--

(1) he has, within the preceding twelve months, participated as principal in three or more transactions in the sale or rental of any dwelling or any interest therein, or

(2) he has, within the preceding twelve months, participated as agent, other than in the sale of his own residence in providing sales or rental facilities or sales or rental services in two or more transactions in the sale or rental of any dwelling or any interest therein, or

(3) he is the owner of any dwelling designed or intended for occupancy by, or occupied by, five or more persons.

Sec. 804. [42 U.S.C. 3604] Discrimination in sale or rental of housing and other prohibited practices As made unlawful by section 803 of this title and except as exempted by sections 803(b) and 807 of this title, it shall be unlawful--

(a) To refuse to sell or rent after the making of a bona fide offer, or to refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or to make unavailable or deny, a dwelling to any person because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status, or national origin.

(b) To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith, because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status, or national origin.

(c) To make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice, statement, or advertisement in respect to the sale or rental of a dwelling that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin, or an intention to make any such preference, limitation, or discrimination.

(d) To represent to any person because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin that a dwelling is not available for inspection, sale, or rental when such dwelling is in fact so available.

(e) For profit, to induce or attempt to induce any person to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

(1) To discriminate in the sale or rental, or to otherwise make unavailable or deny, a dwelling to any person because of a handicap of--

(A) that buyer or renter,

(B) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented, or made available for sale or rental,

(C) any person associated with that buyer or renter.

(2) To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection with such dwelling, because of a handicap of--

(A) that person; or

(B) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented, or made available for sale or rental;

(C) any person associated with that person.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, discrimination includes--

(A) a refusal to permit, at the expense of the handicapped person, reasonable modifications to existing premises occupied or to be occupied by such person if such modifications may be necessary for such person's full enjoyment of the premises, except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may refuse to permit or to make any such modification if it is not reasonable to do so conditionally on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted;

(B) a refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services, when such accommodations may be necessary to afford such person equal opportunity to use and enjoy the dwelling;

(C) in connection with the design and construction of covered multifamily dwellings for first occupancy after the date that is 30 months after the date of enactment of the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, to design and construct those dwellings in such a manner that--

(i) the public use and common use portions of such dwellings are readily accessible to and usable by handicapped persons;

(ii) all the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises within such dwellings are sufficiently wide to allow passage by handicapped persons in wheelchairs; and

(iii) all premises within such dwellings contain the following features of adaptive design:

(I) an accessible route into and through the dwelling;

(II) light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls and controls in accessible locations;

(III) reinforcements in bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and

(IV) usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver into and use the space.

(4) Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American National Standard for buildings providing accessibility and usability for physically handicapped people (commonly cited as "ANSI A117.1") shall satisfy the requirements of paragraph (3)(C)(iii).

(A) If a State or unit of general local government has incorporated into its laws the requirements of paragraph (3)(C), compliance with such laws shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (3)(C)(iii).

(B) A State or unit of general local government may review and approve newly constructed covered multifamily dwellings for the purpose of making determinations as to whether the design and construction of such dwellings meet the requirements of paragraph (3)(C) are met.

(C) The Secretary shall encourage, but may not require, States and units of local government to review their existing procedures for the review and approval of newly constructed covered multifamily dwellings for the purpose of making determinations as to whether the design and construction of such dwellings are consistent with the requirements of paragraph (3)(C), and shall provide technical assistance to States and units of local government and other entities to help them implement the requirements of paragraph (3)(C).

(D) Nothing in this title shall be construed to require the Secretary to review or approve the plans for the construction of all covered multifamily dwellings, to determine whether the design and construction of such dwellings are consistent with the requirements of paragraph (3)(C).

(A) Nothing in paragraph (5) shall be construed to affect the authority and responsibility of the State or local public agency certified pursuant to section 810(f)(3) of this Act to receive and process complaints or otherwise engage in enforcement activities under this title.

(B) Determinations by a State or a unit of general local government under paragraphs (5)(A) and (5)(B) shall be conclusive in enforcement proceedings under this title.

(7) As used in this subsection, the term "covered multifamily dwellings" means--

(A) buildings consisting of 4 or more units if such buildings have one or more elevators; and

(B) ground floor units in other buildings consisting of 4 or more units.

(8) Nothing in this title shall be construed to invalidate or limit any law of a State or political subdivision or other jurisdiction in which this title shall be effective, that requires dwellings to be designed and constructed in a manner that affords handicapped persons greater access than is required by this title.

(9) Nothing in this subsection requires that a dwelling be made available to an individual whose tenancy constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose tenancy would result in physical damage to the property of others.

Sec. 805. [42 U.S.C. 3605] Discrimination in Residential Real Estate-Related Transactions

(a) In General.--It shall be unlawful for any person or other entity whose business includes engaging in residential real estate-related transactions to discriminate against any person in making available such a transaction, or in the conditions of such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

(b) Definition.--As used in this section, the term "residential real estate-related transaction" means any of the following:

(1) The making or purchasing of loans or providing other financial assistance--

(A) for purchasing, constructing, improving, repairing, or maintaining a dwelling; or

(B) secured by residential real estate.

(2) The selling, brokering, or appraising of residential real property.

(c) Appraisal Exemption.--Nothing in this title prohibits a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of residential real property to take into consideration factors other than race, color, religion, national origin, sex, handicap, or national origin.

Sec. 806. [42 U.S.C. 3606] Discrimination in provision of brokerage services After December 31, 1968, it shall deny any person access to or membership or participation in any multiple-listing service, real estate brokers' organization, or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings, or to discriminate against him on account of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

Sec. 807. [42 U.S.C. 3607] Religious organization or private club exemption

(a) Nothing in this subchapter shall prohibit a religious organization, association, or society, or any nonprofit organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from giving preference to such persons, unless membership in such religious organization, association, or society is limited on account of race, color, or national origin. Nor shall anything in this subchapter prohibit a private club not in public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodgings which it owns or operates for a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from giving preference to its members.

(1) Nothing in this title limits the applicability of any reasonable local, State, or Federal restrictions on the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling. Nor does any provision in this title restrict the status apply with respect to housing for older persons.

(2) As used in this section "housing for older persons" means housing --

(A) provided under any State or Federal program that the Secretary determines is specifically operated to assist elderly persons (as defined in the State or Federal program); or

(B) intended for, and solely occupied by, persons 62 years of age or older; or

(C) intended and operated for occupancy by persons 55 years of age or older, and--

(i) at least 80 percent of the occupied units are occupied by at least one person who is 62 years of age or older;

(ii) the housing facility or community publishes and adheres to policies and procedures that demonstrate the intent required under this subparagraph; and

(iii) the housing facility or community complies with rules issued by the Secretary for housing for older persons occupancy, which shall--

(I) provide for verification by reliable surveys and affidavits; and

(II) include examples of the types of policies and procedures relevant to a determination of compliance with the requirement of clause (ii). Such surveys and affidavits shall be used in any administrative and judicial proceedings for the purposes of such verification.

(3) Housing shall not fail to meet the requirements for housing for older persons by reason of:

(A) persons residing in such housing as of the date of enactment of this Act who do not meet the requirements of subsections (2)(B) or (C): Provided, That new occupants of such housing must meet the requirements of subsections (2)(B) or (C); or

(B) unoccupied units: Provided, That such units are reserved for occupancy by persons who meet the requirements of subsections (2)(B) or (C).

(4) Nothing in this title prohibits conduct against a person because such person has been convicted in any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance as defined in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802).

(A) A person shall not be held personally liable for monetary damages for a violation of this title if the person reasonably relied, in good faith, on the application of the exemption under this subsection relating to housing for older persons.

(B) For the purposes of this paragraph, a person may only show good faith reliance on the application of the exemption by showing that--

(i) such person has no actual knowledge that the facility or community is not, or will not, meet the requirements of this section.

such exemption; and

(ii) the facility or community has stated formally, in writing, that the facility or community meets the requirements for such exemption

Sec. 808. [42 U.S.C. 3608] Administration

(a) Authority and responsibility

The authority and responsibility for administering this Act shall be in the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

(b) Assistant Secretary

The Department of Housing and Urban Development shall be provided an additional Assistant Secretary.

(c) Delegation of authority; appointment of administrative law judges; location of conciliation meetings; administration of hearing functions

The Secretary may delegate any of his functions, duties and power to employees of the Department of Housing and Urban Development or to boards of such employees, including functions, duties, and powers with respect to investigating, conciliating, hearing, determining, ordering, certifying, reporting, or otherwise acting as to any work, business, or activity under this subchapter. The person to whom such delegations are made with respect to hearing functions, duties, and powers shall be appointed and shall serve in the Department of Housing and Urban Development in compliance with sections 3105, 3344, 5372, and 7521 of title 5 [of the United States Code]. Insofar as possible, conciliation hearings shall be held in the cities or other localities where the discriminatory housing practices allegedly occurred. The Secretary shall prescribe such rights of appeal from the decisions of his administrative law judges to other administrative law officers in the Department, to boards of officers or to himself, as shall be appropriate and in accordance with the provisions of law.

(d) Cooperation of Secretary and executive departments and agencies in administration of housing and urban development programs and activities to further fair housing purposes

All executive departments and agencies shall administer their programs and activities relating to housing and urban development (including any Federal agency having regulatory or supervisory authority over financial institutions) affirmatively to further the purposes of this subchapter and shall cooperate with the Secretary to further such purposes.

(e) Functions of Secretary

The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall--

(1) make studies with respect to the nature and extent of discriminatory housing practices in representative communities, urban, suburban, and rural, throughout the United States;

(2) publish and disseminate reports, recommendations, and information derived from such studies, in an annual report to the Congress--

(A) specifying the nature and extent of progress made nationally in eliminating discriminatory housing practices and furthering the purposes of this title, obstacles remaining to achieving equal housing opportunities, and recommendations for further legislative or executive action; and

(B) containing tabulations of the number of instances (and the reasons therefor) in the preceding year in which--

(i) investigations are not completed as required by section 810(a)(1)(B);

(ii) determinations are not made within the time specified in section 810(g); and

(iii) hearings are not commenced or findings and conclusions are not made as required by section 812(g);

(3) cooperate with and render technical assistance to Federal, State, local, and other public or private organizations, and institutions which are formulating or carrying on programs to prevent or eliminate discriminatory housing practices;

(4) cooperate with and render such technical and other assistance to the Community Relations Service as may be appropriate to further its activities in preventing or eliminating discriminatory housing practices;

(5) administer the programs and activities relating to housing and urban development in a manner that shall further the policies of this subchapter; and

(6) annually report to the Congress, and make available to the public, data on the race, color, religion, sex, age, handicap, and family characteristics of persons and households who are applicants for, or beneficiaries or potential beneficiaries of, programs administered by the Department to the extent such data are within the coverage of the provisions of law and Executive orders referred to in subsection (f) with respect to such programs (and in order to develop the data to be included and made available to the public under this section).

Secretary shall, without regard to any other provision of law, collect such information relating to those as the Secretary determines to be necessary or appropriate).

- (f) The provisions of law and Executive orders to which subsection (e)(6) applies are--
- (1) title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;
  - (2) title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968;
  - (3) section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973;
  - (4) the Age Discrimination Act of 1975;
  - (5) the Equal Credit Opportunity Act;
  - (6) section 1978 of the Revised Statutes (42 U.S.C. 1982);
  - (7) section 8(a) of the Small Business Act;
  - (8) section 527 of the National Housing Act;
  - (9) section 109 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974;
  - (10) section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968;
  - (11) Executive Orders 11063, 11246, 11625, 12250, 12259, and 12432; and
  - (12) any other provision of law which the Secretary specifies by publication in the Federal Register for this subsection.

Sec. 808a. [42 U.S.C. 3608a] Collection of certain data

(a) In general

To assess the extent of compliance with Federal fair housing requirements (including the requirements established by title VI of Public Law 88-352 [42 U.S.C.A. {2000d et seq.}] and title VIII of Public Law 90-284 [42 U.S.C.A. {3605 et seq.}], the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and the Secretary of Agriculture shall each collect, not less than once a year, data on the racial and ethnic characteristics of persons eligible for, assisted, or otherwise benefiting under such programs of development, housing assistance, and mortgage and loan insurance and guarantee program administered by the Secretary. Such data shall be collected on a building by building basis if the Secretary involved determines that to be appropriate.

(b) Reports to Congress

The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and the Secretary of Agriculture shall each include in their annual report to the Congress a summary and evaluation of the data collected by such Secretary under this section during the preceding year.

Sec. 809. [42 U.S.C. 3609] Education and conciliation; conferences and consultations; reports

Immediately after April 11, 1968, the Secretary shall commence such educational and conciliatory activities as in his judgment will further the purposes of this subchapter. He shall call conferences of persons in the housing field and interested parties to acquaint them with the provisions of this subchapter and his suggested means of implementation. He shall endeavor with their advice to work out programs of voluntary compliance and of enforcement. He may travel, and transportation expenses for persons attending such conferences as provided in section 5703 of this title, and consult with State and local officials and other interested parties to learn the extent, if any, to which housing discrimination exists in their State or locality, and whether and how State or local enforcement programs might be utilized in connection with or in place of, the Secretary's enforcement of this subchapter. The Secretary shall report on such conferences and consultations as he deems appropriate.

Sec. 810. [42 U.S.C. 3610] Administrative Enforcement; Preliminary Matters

(a) Complaints and Answers. --

- (i) An aggrieved person may, not later than one year after an alleged discriminatory housing act has occurred or terminated, file a complaint with the Secretary alleging such discrimination. The Secretary, on the Secretary's own initiative, may also file such a complaint.

(ii) Such complaints shall be in writing and shall contain such information and be in such form as the Secretary requires.

(iii) The Secretary may also investigate housing practices to determine whether a complaint has been brought under this section.

(B) Upon the filing of such a complaint--

(i) the Secretary shall serve notice upon the aggrieved person acknowledging such filing and advising the aggrieved person of the time limits and choice of forums provided under this title;

(ii) the Secretary shall, not later than 10 days after such filing or the identification of a respondent under paragraph (2), serve on the respondent a notice identifying the alleged housing practice and advising such respondent of the procedural rights and obligations under this title, together with a copy of the original complaint;

(iii) each respondent may file, not later than 10 days after receipt of notice from the Secretary, an answer to such complaint; and

(iv) the Secretary shall make an investigation of the alleged discriminatory housing practice and shall complete such investigation within 100 days after the filing of the complaint (or, when the Secretary takes further action under subsection (f)(2) with respect to a complaint, within 100 days after the commencement of such further action), unless it is impracticable to do so.

(C) If the Secretary is unable to complete the investigation within 100 days after the filing of the complaint (or, when the Secretary takes further action under subsection (f)(2) with respect to a complaint, within 100 days after the commencement of such further action), the Secretary shall notify the complainant in writing of the reasons for not doing so.

(D) Complaints and answers shall be under oath or affirmation, and may be reasonably and fairly taken at any time.

(A) A person who is not named as a respondent in a complaint, but who is identified as a respondent in the course of investigation, may be joined as an additional or substitute respondent upon written notice, given by the Secretary under paragraph (1), to such person, from the Secretary.

(B) Such notice, in addition to meeting the requirements of paragraph (1), shall explain the basis for the Secretary's belief that the person to whom the notice is addressed is properly joined as a respondent.

(b) Investigative Report and Conciliation. --

(1) During the period beginning with the filing of such complaint and ending with the filing of a charge by the Secretary, the Secretary shall, to the extent feasible, engage in conciliation with respect to such complaint.

(2) A conciliation agreement arising out of such conciliation shall be an agreement between the respondent and the complainant, and shall be subject to approval by the Secretary.

(3) A conciliation agreement may provide for binding arbitration of the dispute arising from the complaint. Any arbitration that results from a conciliation agreement may award appropriate relief, including monetary damages.

(4) Each conciliation agreement shall be made public unless the complainant and respondent otherwise agree, or unless the Secretary determines that disclosure is not required to further the purposes of this title.

(A) At the end of each investigation under this section, the Secretary shall prepare a final investigative report containing--

(i) the names and dates of contacts with witnesses;

(ii) a summary and the dates of correspondence and other contacts with the aggrieved person and the respondent;

(iii) a summary description of other pertinent records;

(iv) a summary of witness statements; and

(v) answers to interrogatories.

(B) A final report under this paragraph may be amended if additional evidence is later discovered.

- (c) Failure to Comply With Conciliation Agreement. -- Whenever the Secretary has reasonable cause to believe a respondent has breached a conciliation agreement, the Secretary shall refer the matter to the Attorney General with a recommendation that a civil action be filed under section 814 for the enforcement of such agreement.
- (d) Prohibitions and Requirements With Respect to Disclosure of Information. --
- (1) Nothing said or done in the course of conciliation under this title may be made public or used as evidence in any subsequent proceeding under this title without the written consent of the persons concerned.
  - (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Secretary shall make available to the aggrieved person and to any other person, at any time, upon request following completion of the Secretary's investigation, information derived from the investigation and any final investigative report relating to that investigation.
- (e) Prompt Judicial Action. --
- (1) If the Secretary concludes at any time following the filing of a complaint that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this title, the Secretary may authorize a civil action for appropriate temporary relief pending final disposition of the complaint under this section. Upon receipt of such authorization, the Attorney General shall promptly commence and maintain such an action. Any temporary restraining order or order granting preliminary or temporary relief shall be issued in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The commencement of a civil action under this subsection does not affect the initiation or continuation of proceedings under this section and section 812 of this title.
  - (2) Whenever the Secretary has reason to believe that a basis may exist for the commencement of proceedings against any respondent under section 814(a) and 814(c) or for proceedings by any governmental licensing or supervisory authorities, the Secretary shall transmit the information upon which such belief is based to the Attorney General, or to such authorities, as the case may be.
- (f) Referral for State or Local Proceedings. --
- (1) Whenever a complaint alleges a discriminatory housing practice--
    - (A) within the jurisdiction of a State or local public agency; and
    - (B) as to which such agency has been certified by the Secretary under this subsection; the Secretary shall refer such complaint to that certified agency before taking any action with respect to such complaint.
  - (2) Except with the consent of such certified agency, the Secretary, after that referral is made, shall not take any action with respect to such complaint unless--
    - (A) the certified agency has failed to commence proceedings with respect to the complaint by the 30th day after the date of such referral;
    - (B) the certified agency, having so commenced such proceedings, fails to carry forward such proceedings with reasonable promptness; or
    - (C) the Secretary determines that the certified agency no longer qualifies for certification under this subsection with respect to the relevant jurisdiction.
  - (3)
    - (A) The Secretary may certify an agency under this subsection only if the Secretary determines that
      - (i) the substantive rights protected by such agency in the jurisdiction with respect to which certification is to be made;
      - (ii) the procedures followed by such agency;
      - (iii) the remedies available to such agency; and
      - (iv) the availability of judicial review of such agency's action; are substantially equivalent to those created by and under this title.
    - (B) Before making such certification, the Secretary shall take into account the current practice and performance, if any, of such agency.
  - (4) During the period which begins on the date of the enactment of the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988 and ends 40 months after such date, each agency certified (including an agency certified for interim referral)

24 CFR 115.11, unless such agency is subsequently denied recognition under 24 CFR 115.7) for the title on the day before such date shall for the purposes of this subsection be considered certified under this subsection with respect to those matters for which such agency was certified on that date. If the Secretary in an individual case that an agency has not been able to meet the certification requirements within the period due to exceptional circumstances, such as the infrequency of legislative sessions in that jurisdiction, the Secretary may extend such period by not more than 8 months.

(5) Not less frequently than every 5 years, the Secretary shall determine whether each agency certified under this subsection continues to qualify for certification. The Secretary shall take appropriate action with respect to any agency not so qualifying.

(g) Reasonable Cause Determination and Effect. --

(1) The Secretary shall, within 100 days after the filing of the complaint (or, when the Secretary takes further action under subsection (f)(2) with respect to a complaint, within 100 days after the commencement of such further action), determine based on the facts whether reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, unless it is impracticable to do so, or unless the Secretary has approved a settlement agreement with respect to the complaint. If the Secretary is unable to make the determination within the period specified, the Secretary shall, after the filing of the complaint (or, when the Secretary takes further action under subsection (f)(2) with respect to a complaint, within 100 days after the commencement of such further action), the Secretary shall notify the complainant and respondent in writing of the reasons for not doing so.

(A) If the Secretary determines that reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the Secretary shall, except as provided in subparagraph (C), issue a charge on behalf of the aggrieved person, for further proceedings under section 812.

(B) Such charge--

(i) shall consist of a short and plain statement of the facts upon which the Secretary has determined there is reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur;

(ii) shall be based on the final investigative report; and

(iii) need not be limited to the facts or grounds alleged in the complaint filed under section 810.

(C) If the Secretary determines that the matter involves the legality of any State or local zoning or other land use law or ordinance, the Secretary shall immediately refer the matter to the Attorney General for his or her action under section 814, instead of issuing such charge.

(3) If the Secretary determines that no reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the Secretary shall promptly dismiss the complaint. The Secretary shall disclose the reasons for each such dismissal.

(4) The Secretary may not issue a charge under this section regarding an alleged discriminatory housing practice after the beginning of the trial of a civil action commenced by the aggrieved party under an Act of Congress, seeking relief with respect to that discriminatory housing practice.

(h) Service of Copies of Charge. -- After the Secretary issues a charge under this section, the Secretary shall serve a copy thereof, together with information as to how to make an election under section 812(a) and the effect of such election, on the following:

(1) on each respondent named in such charge, together with a notice of opportunity for a hearing at a time and place specified in the notice, unless that election is made; and

(2) on each aggrieved person on whose behalf the complaint was filed.

Sec. 811. [42 U.S.C. 3611] Subpoenas; Giving of Evidence

(a) In General. -- The Secretary may, in accordance with this subsection, issue subpoenas and order discovery in connection with investigations and hearings under this title. Such subpoenas and discovery may be ordered to the same extent and under the same limitations as would apply if the subpoenas or discovery were ordered or served in aid of a civil action in a United States district court for the district in which the investigation is taking place.

- (b) Witness Fees. -- Witnesses summoned by a subpoena under this title shall be entitled to same witness as witnesses in proceedings in United States district courts. Fees payable to a witness summoned by a suit the request of a party shall be paid by that party or, where a party is unable to pay the fees, by the Secretary.
- (c) Criminal Penalties. --

(1) Any person who willfully fails or neglects to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce records, documents, or other evidence, if it is in such person's power to do so, in obedience to the subpoena or lawful order under subsection (a), shall be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

(2) Any person who, with intent thereby to mislead another person in any proceeding under this title--

(A) makes or causes to be made any false entry or statement of fact in any report, account, or document produced pursuant to subpoena or other lawful order under subsection (a);

(B) willfully neglects or fails to make or to cause to be made full, true, and correct entries in such accounts, records, or other documents; or

(C) willfully mutilates, alters, or by any other means falsifies any documentary evidence; shall be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Sec. 812. [42 U.S.C. 3612] Enforcement by Secretary

(a) Election of Judicial Determination. -- When a charge is filed under section 810, a complainant, a respondent, or an aggrieved person on whose behalf the complaint was filed, may elect to have the claims asserted in that charge heard in a civil action under subsection (o) in lieu of a hearing under subsection (b). The election must be made not later than 30 days after the receipt by the electing person of service under section 810(h) or, in the case of the Secretary, not later than 30 days after such service. The person making such election shall give notice of doing so to the Secretary and to all complainants and respondents to whom the charge relates.

(b) Administrative Law Judge Hearing in Absence of Election. -- If an election is not made under subsection (a), the Secretary shall provide an opportunity for a hearing on the record with respect to a charge issued under section 810. The Secretary shall delegate the conduct of a hearing under this section to an administrative law judge appointed under section 3105 of title 5, United States Code. The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing at a place in the vicinity in which the discriminatory housing practice is alleged to have occurred.

(c) Rights of Parties. -- At a hearing under this section, each party may appear in person, be represented by counsel, present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and obtain the issuance of subpoenas under section 811. Any person may intervene as a party in the proceeding. The Federal Rules of Evidence apply to the presentation of evidence at such hearing as they would in a civil action in a United States district court.

(d) Expedited Discovery and Hearing. --

(1) Discovery in administrative proceedings under this section shall be conducted as expeditiously as possible, consistent with the need of all parties to obtain relevant evidence.

(2) A hearing under this section shall be conducted as expeditiously and inexpensively as possible, consistent with the needs and rights of the parties to obtain a fair hearing and a complete record.

(3) The Secretary shall, not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this subsection, issue regulations to implement this subsection.

(e) Resolution of Charge. -- Any resolution of a charge before a final order under this section shall require the participation of the aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge is issued.

(f) Effect of Trial of Civil Action on Administrative Proceedings. -- An administrative law judge may not continue administrative proceedings under this section regarding any alleged discriminatory housing practice after the trial of a civil action commenced by the aggrieved party under an Act of Congress or a State law, seeking injunctive relief with respect to that discriminatory housing practice.

(g) Hearings, Findings and Conclusions, and Order. -- (

(1) The administrative law judge shall commence the hearing under this section no later than 120 days after the issuance of the charge, unless it is impracticable to do so. If the administrative law judge is unable to commence the hearing within 120 days after the issuance of the charge, the administrative law judge shall notify the Secretary of the reasons therefor.

aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge was filed, and the respondent, in writing of the reason so.

(2) The administrative law judge shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law within 60 days after hearing under this section, unless it is impracticable to do so. If the administrative law judge is unable to make findings of fact and conclusions of law within such period, or any succeeding 60-day period thereafter, the administrative law judge shall notify the Secretary, the aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge was filed, and the respondent, in writing of the reasons for not doing so.

(3) If the administrative law judge finds that a respondent has engaged or is about to engage in a discriminatory housing practice, such administrative law judge shall promptly issue an order for such relief as may be appropriate, which may include actual damages suffered by the aggrieved person and injunctive or other equitable relief. The order may, to vindicate the public interest, assess a civil penalty against the respondent--

(A) in an amount not exceeding $11,000 if the respondent has not been adjudged to have committed a discriminatory housing practice;

(B) in an amount not exceeding $27,500 if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed a discriminatory housing practice during the 5-year period ending on the date of the filing of this order;

(C) in an amount not exceeding $55,000 if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed a discriminatory housing practice during the 7-year period ending on the date of the filing of this order, except that if the acts constituting the discriminatory housing practice that is the object of the order were committed by the same natural person who has been previously adjudged to have committed a discriminatory housing practice, then the civil penalties set forth in subparagraphs (B) and (C) shall be imposed without regard to the period of time within which any subsequent discriminatory housing practice occurred.

(4) No such order shall affect any contract, sale, encumbrance, or lease consummated before the issuance of the order and involving a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer, or tenant without actual notice of the charge of this title.

(5) In the case of an order with respect to a discriminatory housing practice that occurred in the course of a business subject to a licensing or regulation by a governmental agency, the Secretary shall, not later than 30 days after the date of the issuance of such order (or, if such order is judicially reviewed, 30 days after such order is affirmed upon such review)--

(A) send copies of the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and the order, to that governmental agency;

(B) recommend to that governmental agency appropriate disciplinary action (including, where appropriate, suspension or revocation of the license of the respondent).

(6) In the case of an order against a respondent against whom another order was issued within the period of 60 days under this section, the Secretary shall send a copy of each such order to the Attorney General.

(7) If the administrative law judge finds that the respondent has not engaged or is not about to engage in a discriminatory housing practice, as the case may be, such administrative law judge shall enter an order dismissing the charge. The Secretary shall make public disclosure of each such dismissal.

(h) Review by Secretary; Service of Final Order. --

(1) The Secretary may review any finding, conclusion, or order issued under subsection (g). Such review shall be completed not later than 30 days after the finding, conclusion, or order is so issued; otherwise the finding, conclusion, or order becomes final.

(2) The Secretary shall cause the findings of fact and conclusions of law made with respect to any finding, conclusion, or order under this section, together with a copy of such order, to be served on each aggrieved person and the respondent in the proceeding.

(i) Judicial Review. --

(1) Any party aggrieved by a final order for relief under this section granting or denying in whole or in part the relief sought may obtain a review of such order under chapter 158 of title 28, United States Code.

(2) Notwithstanding such chapter, venue of the proceeding shall be in the judicial circuit in which the discriminatory housing practice is alleged to have occurred, and filing of the petition for review shall be not later than 30 days after the date of the final order.

the order is entered.

(j) Court Enforcement of Administrative Order Upon Petition by Secretary. --

- (1) The Secretary may petition any United States court of appeals for the circuit in which the discriminatory practice is alleged to have occurred or in which any respondent resides or transacts business for the order of the administrative law judge and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order, by filing a written petition praying that such order be enforced and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order.
- (2) The Secretary shall file in court with the petition the record in the proceeding. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of the court to the parties to the proceeding before the administrative law judge.

(k) Relief Which May Be Granted. --

- (1) Upon the filing of a petition under subsection (i) or (j), the court may--
  - (A) grant to the petitioner, or any other party, such temporary relief, restraining order, or other relief as the court deems just and proper;
  - (B) affirm, modify, or set aside, in whole or in part, the order, or remand the order for further proceedings;
  - (C) enforce such order to the extent that such order is affirmed or modified.
- (2) Any party to the proceeding before the administrative law judge may intervene in the court of appeals.
- (3) No objection not made before the administrative law judge shall be considered by the court, unless the party neglect to urge such objection is excused because of extraordinary circumstances.

(l) Enforcement Decree in Absence of Petition for Review. -- If no petition for review is filed under subsection (j) within the expiration of 45 days after the date the administrative law judge's order is entered, the administrative law judge's order and the fact and order shall be conclusive in connection with any petition for enforcement--

- (1) which is filed by the Secretary under subsection (j) after the end of such day; or
- (2) under subsection (m).

(m) Court Enforcement of Administrative Order Upon Petition of Any Person Entitled to Relief. -- If before the expiration of 45 days after the date the administrative law judge's order is entered, no petition for review has been filed under subsection (j) and the Secretary has not sought enforcement of the order under subsection (j), any person entitled to relief may petition for a decree enforcing the order in the United States court of appeals for the circuit in which the discriminatory housing practice is alleged to have occurred.

(n) Entry of Decree. -- The clerk of the court of appeals in which a petition for enforcement is filed under subsection (m) shall forthwith enter a decree enforcing the order and shall transmit a copy of such decree to the Secretary, the respondent named in the petition, and to any other parties to the proceeding before the administrative law judge.

(o) Civil Action for Enforcement When Election Is Made for Such Civil Action. --

- (1) If an election is made under subsection (a), the Secretary shall authorize, and not later than 30 days after the date an election is made the Attorney General shall commence and maintain, a civil action on behalf of the aggrieved person in a United States district court seeking relief under this subsection. Venue for such civil action shall be in the district in which the discriminatory housing practice occurred, or in the district in which the aggrieved person resides, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in real property, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a business, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a profession, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a vocation, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a trade, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a service, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a business, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a profession, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a vocation, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a trade, or in the district in which the aggrieved person has a substantial interest in a service.
- (2) Any aggrieved person with respect to the issues to be determined in a civil action under this subsection may intervene as of right in that civil action.
- (3) In a civil action under this subsection, if the court finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred, the court may grant as relief any relief which a court could grant with respect to such discriminatory housing practice in a civil action under section 813. Any relief so granted that would accrue to an aggrieved person in a civil action commenced by that aggrieved person under section 813 shall also accrue to that aggrieved person in the civil action under this subsection. If monetary relief is sought for the benefit of an aggrieved person and the aggrieved person intervenes in the civil action, the court shall not award such relief if that aggrieved person has not consented to the entry of such relief.

(p) Attorney's Fees. -- In any administrative proceeding brought under this section, or any court proceeding therefrom, or any civil action under section 812, the administrative law judge or the court, as the case may be, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing party, other than the United States, a reasonable attorney's fee and costs.

States shall be liable for such fees and costs to the extent provided by section 504 of title 5, United States Code, and section 2412 of title 28, United States Code.
